Dear Ms. Medawar:

On behalf of Senator Baker, I want to thank you for inviting him to address the Los Angeles World Affairs Council in December. He was especially pleased to hear from you.

At this point, we do not know whether the Senator will be traveling to California in December. However, when his future schedule is firm, we will get back in touch with you with a definite answer.

Please accept Senator Baker's warm best wishes.

Dear Ms. Ballinger:

On behalf of Mrs. Baker, I want to thank you for your recent letter inviting her to speak to the Santa Rosa Republican Women membership tea on January 26, 1988.

Regrettably, her schedule will not allow her to be in California at that time. She hopes you will understand and sends her warm best wishes for a most enjoyable occasion.

Dear Don:

Thank you for your kind get-well note.
Your advice is very good indeed!

I'm back on the job now and nothing was really wrong with me; I just had a bad reaction to a prescribed antibiotic -- or maybe it had a bad reaction to me!

Again, thanks for thinking of me. Best

Dear Mr. Secretary:

On behalf of President Reagan, thank you for recommending Dave Packard for the Presidential Medal of Freedom. Please be assured that this suggestion will be given every consideration.

As you point out, Mr. Packard is an extraordinary individual whose contributions have earned the gratitude of the American people. I should point out, however, that the Presidential Medal of Freedom is the highest civilian award bestowed by the President on behalf of the Nation and competition is extremely heavy.

Again, thank you for writing to let the President know of your support for Dave Packard.

Dear Loret:

Thank you for your letter expressing your thanks for being included in the welcoming ceremonies and working sessions with President Bongo of Gabon during his visit in August.

Now that we are in the midst of it, September is proving to be a very busy month. The President's schedule is saturated, and unfortunately a briefing on your recent trip would be very difficult to accommodate. However, I will check further with Fred Ryan, and he will get in touch with you directly.

Also, I've asked Nancy Risque, the Cabinet Secretary and point of contact here for independent agencies, to include your request in her planning for agency head briefings of the President.

Dear Dick:

Thank you for your letter endorsing Dave Lawrence's earlier request for a White House reception to honor ASNE members convening in Washington April 12-14, 1988.

I directed your request to the Office of Presidential Scheduling. We appreciate your desire to bring this event to our attention at this early date, but, unfortunately, it is too soon to commit the President to an event taking place next spring.

Please know that your invitation will be given every consideration as his schedule develops. The Scheduling Office will be in touch with you if it is possible to add this to the President's calendar.

Dear Mr. Oelman:

I certainly share your sentiments that further reduction in the federal deficit is necessary to help insure continuation of economic growth over the long run. I can assure that the President has and will continue to support the Gramm-Rudman-Hollings law as enacted and its drive toward a balanced budget.

If you have detected any reticence on the part of the Administration, it is simply because we entered these negotiations committed to "fixing" G-R-H and reforming the budget process so that the spectre of a sequester could be avoided. Without some discipline in the process, and perhaps some additional tools in the arsenal of the Executive Branch, it will be difficult to prevent the potential dire consequences to defense and critical domestic programs that an across-the-board cut would cause. Some in Congress prefer it that way so they can attempt to force the President to choose between taxes and defense rather than make the hard choices necessary to cut domestic spending.

Thanks for sharing your thoughts with me.

Dear John:

In early October of 1984, when I was still the Majority Leader of the U.S. Senate, we unanimously passed a law authorizing the National Law Enforcement Officers' Memorial Fund to build a memorial in our Nation's Capital to all Federal, State and local law enforcement officers who die in the line of duty.

The legislation requires that the Memorial be financed totally through private contributions from the American public. Officials of the Memorial Fund would like to meet with you to provide an overview of the Memorial project and to discuss the possible participation of the N.F.I.B. in this worthy effort.

The Administration feels strongly that a Memorial for those who have given their lives making our nation a safer and better place to live is long overdue. I thought you and your members would agree.

John, I hope you can take time to visit with Fund officials. Craig Floyd, the Fund's Executive Director, will be calling you to set up the meeting.

You have my personal thanks for giving this important matter your consideration.

Dear Mr. Prosl:

Thank you for your letter of August 24 requesting a meeting with Foreign Minister Alois Mock during his visit to Washington September 26-29.

I regret that my calendar does not permit the pleasure of a meeting with Mr. Mock. I understand, however, that appointments for Mr. Mock have already been scheduled with Secretary Shultz and Frank Carlucci for an exchange of views on questions of mutual concern.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President

Dear Dr. Jenkins:

Thank you for your letter of August 18. You should be happy to know that I have spoken with Senator Domenici about his proposal. I think he has a good idea in mind, and I've arranged discussions for him with various members of the Administration.

Having moved to the Executive branch, however, I am limited somewhat in getting the Congress to move on specific legislation. I will certainly do what I can to see that Tennessee gets fair consideration in any bill that moves forward in Congress.

In the meantime, keep up the good work you have begun. I know that the business program at Tennessee is terrific and that, through your collaborative efforts with industry and the National Laboratories, you're helping make America more competitive.

Sincerely,

Howard M. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President

Dear Mr. Bish:

I appreciate your letter of August 14 regarding your appointment to the President's Task Force on Project Economic Justice. The Task Force's hard work and final report are looked upon with great admiration and respect.

Thank you also for your kind words for Linas Kojelis. I will be sure to share them with him.

Best wishes to you in your upcoming work with the President's Commission on Privatization.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.

Dear Ted:

Thanks so much for the salmon and for the preparation suggestions. As always, your special thoughtfulness means a great deal to me. I'm sure the First Lady also enjoyed hers.

Dear Radi:

Thank you for your July 31 letter concerning your request for the President to address the National Republican Heritage Groups Council's annual convention luncheon on October 30. I apologize for my delay in responding.

The President was particularly honored by your thoughtful invitation, but the heavy demands of his schedule prevent him from accepting. I trust you will understand.

Please accept my very best wishes for a most successful gathering.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.

Dear Mayor Easley:

Thank you for your letter to Senator Baker regarding the City of Bristol's application for an Urban Development Action Grant.

As a matter of policy, White House officials do not intervene in pending grant applications. We have, therefore, brought your letter to the attention of the Department of Housing and Urban Development for review.

With Senator Baker's best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Earl:

Thanks for the additional information on the trip to Yosemite and for sending me the commemorative stamps.

It doesn't look like I'll be traveling to California before the owls leave the park for the winter. However, I hope we can work something out for the spring; please stay in touch.

Warm best wishes.
